What We Do with the Information We Gather

We obtain information in order to understand your needs and provide you with a better service, and in particular for the following activities:

- Internal record keeping.
- We may use the information to improve our products and services.
- We may periodically send promotional emails about new products, special offers or other information which we think you may find interesting using the email address which you have provided.
- From time to time, we may also use your information to contact you for market research purposes. We may contact you by email, phone, fax or mail. We may use the information to customize the website according to your interests.

Use of Cookies

Cookies are small files downloaded to the devices you use to access the IntelliSecure website. Your browser makes these files available every time you visit our site. Some cookies are essential to help you view our site, such as positioning information correctly on your screen or navigating through our site. Cookies may also be used to store personal information you provide us to accomplish tasks such as pre-filling registration forms for information requests, and event and webinar registration. We use cookies to:

- Provide a better online experience
- Track website performance
- Help make our website more relevant to you
- Manage our marketing relationship

Managing Cookies

You may manage your cookie settings within your browser. If you delete cookies for the IntelliSecure website, certain functions, such as pre-populating forms will be disabled. Learn more about cookies and their management by visiting: aboutcookies.org.

Links to Other Websites

Our website may contain links to other websites of interest. However, once you have used these links to leave our site, you should note that we do not have any control over that website. Therefore, we cannot be responsible for the protection and privacy of any information which you provide whilst visiting such sites and such sites are not governed by this privacy statement. You should exercise caution and look at the privacy statement applicable to the website in question.

Do Not Track

IntelliSecure landing pages honor Do Not Track requests if you have set them up in your web browser. This may interfere with personalization features on the site, such as pre-population of forms.

Controlling Your Personal Information

You may choose to restrict the collection or use of your personal information in the following ways:

- if you have previously agreed to us using your personal information for direct marketing purposes, you may change your mind at any time, and adjust your preferences by accessing <https://go.intelisecure.com/emailpreferences>, or by emailing us at privacy@intelisecure.com
- You may also send us an e-mail at privacy@intelisecure.com to request access to, correct or delete any personal information that you have provided to us. We may not accommodate a request to change information if we believe the change would violate any law or legal requirement or cause the information to be incorrect.

We believe strongly in protecting users' privacy. Unless otherwise specified in this Privacy Statement, we will not provide any of the personal information you give us to any third party without your consent. IntelliSecure may send your personal information to other companies or people under any of the following circumstances:

- If sharing your information is necessary to provide a product, service or information you have requested; by way of example, sharing your information with a bank, logistics company, event organizer, marketing agency, etc.
- As part of a joint sales or event promotion with our business partners.

- To keep you up to date on the latest service or product announcements, software updates, special offers or other information we think you would like to hear about either from us, through our marketing agencies or from our business partners.
- With business partners, service vendors, authorized third-party agents, or contractors to provide a requested solution, service or transaction. Examples include, but are not limited to: processing of orders, hosting websites, hosting seminar registration, assisting with sales-related efforts or post-sales support, and providing customer support.
- In aggregated form which cannot reasonably be used to directly identify you.
 - Provided that any such disclosure shall be aggregated, the Customer agrees that IntelliSecure may use for its business purposes portions of the Customer Data, or specific metrics derived from Customer's usage of the IntelliSecure's Services, or both.
 - We may collect and aggregate statistics on our service usage and any related service usage across Customers that will help IntelliSecure perform industry benchmarking of service usage, product usage trending, and for projecting business and operational scaling.
- In connection with, or during negotiations of, any merger, sale of company assets, consolidation or restructuring, financing, or acquisition of all or a portion of our business by or to another company.
- In certain situations, IntelliSecure may be required to disclose personal data in response to lawful requests by public authorities, including meeting national security or law enforcement requirements. We reserve our right to disclose your personal information to a third party if we have a good faith belief that access, use, preservation or disclosure of such information is reasonably necessary to (a) comply with any applicable law, regulation, legal process or enforceable governmental request, (b) enforce applicable Legal Notice and Terms of Use, including investigation of potential violations thereof, (c) detect, prevent, or otherwise address fraud, security or technical issues, or (d) protect against imminent harm to the rights, property or safety of IntelliSecure, its users or the public as required or permitted by law.
- If we otherwise notify you and you consent to the sharing (if required under local law.)

Intellectual Property
